HARDSHIP ASSISTANCE & FINANCIAL COUNSELLING

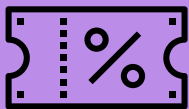

Sydney Community Services

WHAT IS HARDSHIP ASSISTANCE?

The Hardship Assistance Program is a free service that provides aid to families with young children experiencing immediate critical financial adversity.

How we can help:

- Food Vouchers: Can be used at local supermarkets to buy food and household items.
- Food Parcels: Consist of non-perishable foods (pasta, rice, cereals canned goods, etc.).
- Utility Accounts: Utility vouchers can be provided for gas, water, electricity and Telstra accounts.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Family with children under 18.
- A resident of: Hunters Hill, Ryde or Lane Cove.
- Present with a financial crisis (proof required: Centrelink statements and utility bills).
- Recognise that the program is not intended to and cannot provide ongoing relief.

Service times and availabilities:

Food parcels, vouchers and utility account assistance is available from the Hunters Hill Office during office hours.

Monday - Friday
8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

WHAT IS FINANCIAL COUNSELLING?

Financial counselling is a confidential service that can be used to establish longer-term solutions to financial difficulties. Our consultant can assist with money management strategies and provide other financial advice and information.

Speak to our financial advisors who can help you:

- Create a budget
- Address your financial concerns
- Devise a plan to resolve ongoing debt

Service times and availabilities:

Financial Counselling is available by appointment and is run out of our Hunters Hill Office.
