

Sydney Community Services: lockdown service update

At this difficult time Sydney Community Services continues support the local communities around Lane Cove, Hunter Hill and Ryde LGAs during the lockdown period.

Although the services might look different, be assured our customer, staff and community safety is our primary focus at this time.

If you would like any information about how we could support you, please do not hesitate to contact us on 8598 7051 or drop us a line at support@sydneycs.org.

Our essential services such as nursing, home-delivered meals, in-home respite, disability supports, hardship assistance and assisted activities continue to operate as usual and are open to new referrals.

In the past we have always appreciated your donations of food and pantry staples, and once again we are reaching out for tinned food, such as tuna, tomatoes, beans, breakfast cereals, long life milk, tea coffee, sugar, pasta and rice in order to help individuals and families to get through a crisis. You can either drop them off at the office at 46 Gladesville Rd from 8.30am to 4.00pm Monday to Friday or consider ordering a supermarket online order to be delivered directly to us.

If you or someone you know are in financial distress or need emergency food supplies, please call us in advance on 9427 6425 and then come along to our Lane Cove office at 1 Pottery Lane, Lane Cove (opposite the swimming pool) or our Hunters Hill at 46 Gladesville Road, Hunters Hill office between 8.30 and 4pm.

Our staff are committed to serving our communities and delivering high-quality care, especially during the lockdown. Be assured that we follow the strictest infection control guidelines in line with the NSW Health protocols.
